General Information:

As soon as possible after an appointment is made, a copy of the appointment must be delivered to the Chief Electoral Officer [Election Act, s. 176].

The financial agent may appoint as many deputy financial agents as is necessary. A separate appointment form must be used for each appointment.

Instructions:

- 1 Enter the full name of the contestant.
- 2 Indicate whether they are a nomination contestant or a leadership contestant.
- 3 Enter the electoral district, if contestant is a nomination contestant.

PART A: COMPLETED BY DEPUTY FINANCIAL AGENT

- 4 Enter the full name and contact information for the deputy financial agent. As a minimum, the Election Act requires that a mailing address and phone number be provided. Please note this form is available for public inspection.
- 5 Enter the effective date of appointment. The effective date is the day on which the deputy financial agent assumes that position. For example, a deputy financial agent could be appointed to assume that position as of November 1. Therefore, the effective date for that appointment would be November 1.
- 6 This declaration must be completed by the individual being appointed as deputy financial agent. The authority of the deputy financial agent for a contestant is limited to filing reports if the financial agent is absent or incapable of filing reports. The deputy financial agent has the same responsibilities in relation to this duty as financial agent [Election Act, section 178].

The following individuals are disqualified from acting as a deputy financial agent [Election Act, s.176]:

- election officials, voter registration officials or employees of Elections BC
- individuals who do not have full capacity to enter into contracts (e.g., a minor child)
- the contestant's auditor
- individuals who are members of the auditor's firm
- individuals who have been convicted of an offence under the Election Act or the Recall and Initiative Act within the last seven years
- individuals who have failed to file financial reports under the Election Act or the Recall and Initiative Act within the last seven years

Signing a false statement is an offence and is subject to significant penalties [Election Act, s. 266].
